— by Jack R. Congrove, Northwest Federation

The Seattle Philatelic Exhibition (SEAPEX) was held at its usual Tukwila Community Center venue on 13–15 September. This year's enhanced publicity appeared to result in increased attendance over previous years. All three days saw busy traffic at the dealer tables.

The bourse included 24 dealers plus booths occupied by the United States Postal Service and United Nations Postal Administration. The two postal organizations experienced brisk sales of their current stamp issues. The Seattle USPS offered stocks of the $2 Inverted Jenny sheets before the recall of the sheets to the Kansas City Fulfillment Center.

This year, the show celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first manned Moon landing as its theme. We received many compliments on the designs of our show program as well as souvenir covers and pictorial postmarks reflecting this theme. We also sold many sets of souvenir covers to mail-in requests resulting from their brief announcement in Linn's Stamp News.

On Thursday before the show, SEAPEX arranged a tour of the Museum of Flight led by Steve Ellis, a stamp collector who is a docent at the museum. In addition to seeing the collection of world-class air and space artifacts, Steve arranged a special visit to the archives where the members of the group were able to view some significant aerophilatelic artifacts and aviation history documents.

From the Editor's Desk

Recently I was pondering our use of euphemisms. I thought of a piece of equipment we find in every modern passenger vehicle called an “air bag.” There is absolutely no “air” in an air bag. It is physically impossible to inflate such a device rapidly enough in the split second of a collision using air. Instead, the inflation is accomplished by means of a controlled chemical explosion. I am pretty sure that the automotive industry rightfully concluded that consumers would be rather leery of buying a vehicle equipped with an “explosion bag.”

Included in this edition of the journal is a copy of the draft revision of the Federation Bylaws. We are publishing this document pursuant to the Federation Board meeting in Burnaby, British Columbia, in September (see page 10), and the requirements of the current Federation Bylaws, for review by the members of the Federation clubs to enable discussion and voting on the changes at the Annual General Meeting at PIPEX 2020.

The major changes are (1) removal of the term limit requirement for the Federation Treasurer, and (2) extraction of the detailed procedures involving the Federation Awards to move them to a separate policy letter.

The reasoning for the former change is to provide stability in the financial operation of the Federation. The Board believes that the audit process in place is sufficient to ensure accurate accounting of the Federation budget and financial assets.

The reasoning for the latter change is to facilitate adjustments in the award procedures without having to go through the complex process of making changes to the Bylaws. Please review the draft document. Submit your inquiries and suggestions to the Executive Secretary.

We did not receive any answers to our mystery cover quiz in the last edition, so I guess it will remain a mystery. As we enter a period containing many holidays between now and our next edition of the journal, we offer a quiz on the subject.

You will also find reports on several recent stamp shows and news about happenings in the Federation region. If you find these articles interesting, I invite you to submit one of your own. My file of pending articles is very small, so please help me out with a story about an item in your collection, or some philatelic adventure you have experienced. Do not worry about formatting. I will take care of all that.

Newsletter editors, please make sure I am on your distribution list so I can report your news to others in the Federation.

Club officers, send me news about your club's activities and accomplishments, especially if you present an exhibition. I will publish this information in upcoming editions. Input for the next edition is due to me not later than 15 February 2020. Send to: jackcongrove@comcast.net.

Executive Secretary's Notes

Jim Mazepa, chief judge at SEAPEX, began the judges' session by explaining there are three reasons to exhibit:

1. To show one's collection by sharing it with others,
2. To educate others,
3. To compete.

He said that the SEAPEX judges' session was for those with the third reason. I want to write about the first two.

In our clubs, we have opportunities to show and share, whether it is a short show-and-tell presentation, or a longer prepared program. Many of us participate in the show-and-tells. Most longer programs, even the show-and-tells, are also to educate. What we don't do as often is prepare exhibits for these reasons. Why? We should.

There is room at stamp shows for the exhibits that show/share and that educate, especially at local/regional stamp shows. There is room for these exhibits at bourses. There is room for them at libraries. By their intent, these exhibits promote the hobby. They share the joy of collecting with their viewers, and they illustrate to the viewers what can be collected. They may even teach how a collection can be started.

With this in mind, I would like to see the Federation:

1. Be involved in helping bourse organizers to locate a few exhibits to place in the bourse,
2. List exhibitors with these non-competitive exhibits,
3. Encourage small shows, with or without judged exhibits, to appear in areas where there are now no local shows.

The Sno-King stamp bourse north of Seattle on Saturday, 22 February 2020, will have exhibits after several years without them. This will make it a show. Please participate by sending an exhibit (judging will be by the show visitors) and by attending this new show if you're close by.

Still, I hope we can find other bourses that can add exhibits in Idaho, Montana, Central Oregon, and British Columbia. We need to showcase our hobby with fun exhibits, and these in one to three frames will illustrate the wide variety of what we do.

What I am requesting is for local collectors from these areas to contact me (larry.crain@gmail.com) and/or the Federation to talk about what can be done together. Email addresses of other Federation personnel are elsewhere in this newsletter.

We enjoy stamp collecting. Let's give others (new others) the opportunity to enjoy it too!

Thunderbird Award

The Northwest Federation provides a ribbon to be awarded to a worthy exhibit at all shows held within the geographic area of the Federation. The purpose of this award is to encourage exhibiting, whether or not the exhibitor is a member of a Federation organization.

Exhibits that receive a Vermeil or higher award are not eligible and the judges of the show have sole authority to award, or not award the ribbon.

Recent winners include Jon Noad at Caltapex for Bringing Dinosaurs Back to Life.

Member clubs that hold shows with competitive exhibits can request the Thunderbird ribbon from the Executive Secretary. Local and regional level shows are authorized to present a single award, and national level shows may present two awards.

Clarification

In the last edition of the journal, I wrote about the tradition of standing for the National Anthem, and observed that, "Both the U.S. and Canada celebrate a Memorial Day. In Canada, it is observed in Newfoundland and Labrador and coincides with Canada Day on 1 July. Both countries hold observances that include wreath laying at memorials honoring those who served both in and out of uniform."

Dale Speirs from Calgary wrote to point out that this statement is somewhat misleading in that it implies that all of Canada has a Memorial Day.

"We honour our veterans on Remembrance Day, which is a national holiday on November 11 in which the entire country participates, including Newfoundland.

"Newfoundland and Labrador have a Memorial Day on Canada Day, which is very specific. It does not honour all the war dead, which they do on Remembrance Day. It only honours the Newfoundland Regiment, which went into the Battle of the Somme on July 1, 1916.

On that day, 90 percent of the regiment was killed in action; 780 men went over the top, but only 68 answered the roll call the next morning. Newfoundland at that time was thinly populated, so the deaths of so many men devastated the colony. (Newfoundland did not join Canadian Confederation until 1949.)"

Moon Landing thematic design

SEAPEX had only one convening society this year, the Scandinavian Collectors Club. But four other societies had tables at the show: American Topical Association, American First Day Cover Society, Christmas Seal & Charity Stamp Society, and Pacific Northwest Postcard Club.

There was strong competition for the Grand Award. Both the Grand and Reserve Grand exhibits had just come from competing for the Champion of Champions prize at the APS-ATA show in Omaha. At least two other exhibits had won Grand awards at WSP shows in previous years.

Scouts tour UNPA booth as part of merit badge workshop

An international philatelic jury working at the frames

On Saturday, we held an all-day workshop for the Scout stamp collecting merit badge. A total of 20 Scouts, both boys and girls, participated in this popular event, and 19 were able to successfully complete their requirements.

The philatelic exhibition portion of the show included a total of 230 exhibit frames—the most since SEAPEX became a World Series of Philately (WSP) event. Members of the SCC provided terrific support for the exhibition by entering 12 exhibits.

In addition to the competitive exhibits, there were four frames of non-competitive exhibits and ten frames of society and club showcases, all of which were interesting and popular additions to the show.

The larger than usual philatelic jury of seven judges, including members from Finland and South Africa, was led by Dr. James P. Mazepa from Florida.

Alfredo Frohlich from Florida won the Multi-frame Grand Award for Delaware Postal History—1773 to 1847. His exhibit also received the American Philatelic Congress Award, APS Medal of Excellence Pre-1900, Postal History Society Medal, and United States Cancellation Club Award. This exhibit will be entered in the APS Champion of Champions competition at the Great American Stamp Show next August in Hartford, Connecticut.

Lester C. Lanphear III from California won the Reserve Grand Award for U.S. Departmentals, 1873 to 1884. This exhibit also received the APS Research Award and the United States Stamp Society Statue of Freedom Award.

Edward J. Laveroni from California won the One Frame Grand Award for St. Petersburg–Moscow Railway, Nikolaevskaya Railroad. This exhibit will be entered in the Single Frame Champion of Champions competition at Chicagopex in November 2020.

Lester Lanphear (R) receives the Reserve Grand Award from Jury Chief James Mazepa

The People's Choice Award went to Michael Schumacher from Florida for The Saga of the Icelandic Horse. This exhibit received a Large Vermeil and the American Association of Philatelic Exhibitors Gold Award of Honor.

Unfortunately, there were no Youth or Novice entries this year. There are several special awards available for these types of exhibits, and we would love to give them away. So, if you qualify, start planning and putting together your entry for next year.

See the SEAPEX website (www.seapexshow.org) for a complete listing of palmares for all exhibits.

Ostrich exhibit with a real ostrich feather

SEAPEX 2020 will take place at the same venue on 11–13 September 2020. The theme of the show next year will commemorate the 75th anniversary of the end of World War II. Exhibiting prospectus and entry forms are on the show website (www.seapexshow.org).

Arn Symposium at Moses Lake

The 30th annual John D. Arn Philatelic Symposium will be held on Saturday, 4 April 2020, at the Best Western Conference Center in Moses Lake, Washington. The event is named after, and dedicated to, its founder, John D. Arn from Spokane, Washington.

The symposium will feature four excellent speakers on a variety of topics, both a live and a silent auction, and good fellowship with Pacific Northwest stamp collectors. The complete program includes a luncheon and dinner.

This is one of only three known meetings of this type in the United States. Everyone is welcome. The activities will kick off with an informal no-host dinner at a local restaurant on Friday evening. The hotel offers a special rate for attendees.

Check the NWFSC website for more details as they become available (www.nwfedstamps.org).

Tacoma Club Joins Federation

At the Federation Board meeting held at VANPEX, the Board unanimously voted to reinstate the Tacoma Stamp Club as a Federation member. The Tacoma club was one of the founding members of the Federation in 1935.

They publish a monthly newsletter, The Tacoma Philatelist. The club meets on the fourth Tuesday each month at 6:00 PM at the Bay Terrace Community Center located at 2550 South G Street in Tacoma. They typically hold an auction at each meeting.

The club officers are: Sharlene Wilkey, President; John Buckles, Vice-President; Robin Sopher, Secretary; Paul Craul, Treasurer; and Brian Coy, Director. The newsletter editor is Richard Crooks.

Dues are $15 per year. Contact: sharwilkey@gmail.com.

Peacocks on Stamps

— by Carol j. Edholm, Sno-King Stamp Club

[Ed. note: As a child, Carol remembers visiting an aunt's farm where she raised Peafowl along with chickens and geese. Carol has been an avid stamp collector since eight years of age. She collects and exhibits Peafowl on stamps from around the world.]

Did you notice the Peacocks in each of the illustrations above? These photos appeared in an October 1966 issue of Redbook...you know, the magazine our mothers read when we were growing up? I was only four years old in 1966, so I have no idea if mom was subscribing then, or only later when I was in my teen years. This particular issue featured Hair Fashion. Hmmm... looks like hair fashions have changed a bit over the decades since.

These illustrations were designed by James Hill (1930–2004) of Hamilton, Ontario, a popular Canadian illustrator from the 1950s to 1970s. His work appeared in major publications, galleries, and ad campaigns throughout North America. He also produced illustrations for books.

He was a major influence in his field, was named Artist of the Year by the Guild of American Artists in 1966, and earned two gold medals from the New York-based Society of Illustrators. (The Artist of the Year award had been previously granted only to Norman Rockwell and James Spanfeller.) The last 25 years of his life were spent on “fine arts, wilderness landscapes, and portraits.”

The first illustration above was turned into a stamp by Canada Post for their Great Canadian Illustrators set of five stamps, issued on 5 April 2018, with denomination "P" for Permanent (like our Forever stamps here in the US). The set of five stamps comes in both souvenir sheet and booklet format.

If you want to start a Peafowl stamp collection, this would be a good stamp set to start off with.

VANPEX 2019 Jury began their judging prior to the opening of the show

— by Jack R. Congrove, Northwest Federation

The Vancouver Philatelic Exhibition (VANPEX) sponsored by the British Columbia Philatelic Society (BCPS) was held at the Nikkei Cultural Centre in Burnaby, British Columbia, on 27–29 September 2019. This year VANPEX was both a regional and national level show commemorating the 100th anniversary of the founding of the BCPS.

The last major national show sponsored by the BCPS in Vancouver was PIPEX held in May 1993.

The show featured eight dealers, all from Canada, and 135 frames of competitive exhibits. Besides the dealers, there were five tables manned by various philatelic and other organizations.

In addition, there was a youth table offering free stamps and other goodies for kids and a consignment table by BCPS members. Among the exhibits were four frames displaying the history of the BCPS and VANPEX that included several historic PIPEX souvenirs.

The philatelic jury of four highly qualified judges was led by Dr. Sam Chiu, from Toronto. Other members of the jury were Ed Kroft from Vancouver, David Piercey from Edmonton, and Arlene Sullivan from Vancouver.

The BCPS is one of the charter members of the Northwest Federation. It joined in 1936, and is one of only three clubs that have been continuous members since then. The other two are the Vancouver Island Philatelic Society and the Washington State Philatelic Society.

Formed in the fall of 1918, the BCPS staged its first exhibition in 1925. It has hosted seven PIPEX shows in 1940, 1953, 1958, 1967, 1973, 1985, and 1993.

As PIPEX used to do, VANPEX still presents trophies for the best exhibits in various categories. The British North America Philatelic Society (BNAPS) also presented their awards at this show.

David McLaughlin received a Large Gold award and won the Multi-frame Grand Award and the Best BNA Exhibit Award for The Maple Leaf Issue of Canada 1897–1898. This exhibit also won the BCPS Bury C. Binks Trophy for the best exhibit of Canada and Provinces.

Jean-Jacques Tillard received a Large Gold award and won the Reserve Grand Award for Saint-Pierre et Miquelon, Le Type "Groupe" 1892–1908. This exhibit also received the C.P. Bainbridge Trophy for the best exhibit of foreign material and the Royal Philatelic Society Canada (RPSC) Excellence in Material Award.

Alexander Globe won a Large Gold award and the BCPS Aerophilately and Astrophilately Trophy for Pioneer Air flights, the Semi-Official Air Post and Canada's Air-mail Development 1918–34. This exhibit also received the award for the Best Researched BNA Exhibit.

Gary Sagar received a Large Vermeil award and the BCPS Postal Stationery Trophy for Postal Stationery of New Zealand 1912–1939.

Neil Donan received a Large Vermeil award and the BCPS Blair Henshaw Trophy for the best Display exhibit for Liebe Mutter, Mail from Siberia 1915–18.

Andrew Scott received a Large Gold award and the Best BNA 2-n-4 Exhibit Award for Greetings from Haida Gwaii – the post office and cancellations of BC's Queen Charlotte Archipelago. This exhibit also received the Postal History Society of Canada Best BNA Postal History Award.

Federation Board Meeting

— by George W. Struble, Salem Stamp Society

[Ed. note: The Board of Directors of the Northwest Federation of Stamp Clubs held a semi-annual meeting at the Vancouver Philatelic Exhibition (VANPEX) stamp show in Burnaby, British Columbia, on 28 September 2019. These are the official minutes of that meeting published here in accordance with the Federation By-Laws.]

Board members attending:

Eric Knapp, Chair
Larry Crain, Executive Secretary
Michael Anderson, Canadian director
Darin Chernwihan, Canadian Director
George Struble, US Director

Newsletter Editor:

Jack Congrove

Others attending:

David Bartlet, Calgary Philatelic Society
Michael Souza, North Shore Numismatic Society
Trevor Larden, British Columbia Philatelic Society
Terry Leishman, Peace Arch Stamp Club
Doreen Leishman, Peace Arch Stamp Club

Board members absent:

Alex Hadden, Treasurer
Jim Hirstein, US Director

The meeting of the Northwest Federation of Stamp Clubs (NWFSC) was called to order by Chair Eric Knapp at 10:01 AM on 28 September 2019, at VANPEX in Burnaby, British Columbia.

The Tacoma Stamp Club, one of the NWFSC founding members, applied for readmission. George Struble moved acceptance; Larry Crain seconded; the motion was passed unanimously.

A draft of Bylaws revisions had been prepared by Michael Anderson before the previous meeting at PIPEX in May 2019. Among proposed changes: (1) remove term limits for the treasurer, (2) ending the requirement for membership in a NWFSC club for eligibility for a Thunderbird ribbon. A committee of Eric Knapp, Michael Anderson, and Jack Congrove will prepare a comprehensive draft of proposed revisions and send it by email to Board members by the end of October. The Board of Directors will agree on the revisions to submit to the NWFSC membership by mid-November, at which time Jack Congrove will publish the proposed revisions in The Federated Philatelist that will be distributed about the end of November, to be voted on at the NWFSC Annual Meeting in May 2020.

A Nominating Committee of Darin Chernwihan and Lisa Foster will prepare nominations for the May 2020 election. Expiring terms: Michael Anderson, Eric Knapp, and George Struble.

Larry Crain reminded us that the NWFSC gives awards at PIPEX every year: Member Service Awards, Northwest Distinguished Philatelist, and Federation Meritorious Achievement Award. Nominations for Member Service Awards are made by member societies of the Federation and are not further reviewed; nominations for the other awards should be made to the Executive Secretary by anyone, and should be received three months before PIPEX to allow time for approval by the Board.

Larry Crain also reminded us of the John Arn Symposium at Moses Lake every April, and distributed flyers for the event. He and others present encouraged our attendance.

Eric Knapp adjourned the formal part of the meeting. We then had useful discussions of facilitating exhibits across the US-Canadian border and of strategies for encouraging people to become new members of our clubs.

Larry Crain asked for suggestion of a library to which the Federation can assign its subscription to The American Philatelist; the Burnaby, B.C. Library was suggested.

Literature Award Winners

Two Pacific Northwest philatelists have been recognized by the 2019 La Posta Prizes for published articles. La Posta: The Journal of American Postal History, published by Peter Martin, awards prizes each year for exceptional articles published during the past year.

The Richard W. Helbock Prize goes to the best postal history article. Ralph Nafziger from Albany, Oregon, received Honorable Mention for his article, “William S. Linto: A Prolific Cachetmaker,” published in the fourth quarter issue.

The Charles A Frick Award goes to the best “Small Bites of Great American Postal History.” Louis Fiset from Seattle, Washington, received the runner-up award with “1940 New York World’s Fair Employee Interned.”

La Posta, the self-described “leading journal devoted to American postal history,” is published four times per year and marked its 50th year of publication in 2018. Subscriptions are $35 per year. For more information, contact: La Posta Publications, P.O. Box 6074, Fredericksburg, VA 22403, or email laposta.joan@yahoo.com.

New Oregon Club

Word has come that a new stamp club is forming in Klamath Falls, Oregon. Some collectors have relocated from Northern Nevada where they were members of the Nevada Stamp Study Society, a very active philatelic group based in Reno.

They are still getting organized and deciding on a club name. Because they are meeting at the library, the club will be free for all members.

The club plans to meet on the first Saturday each month from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM at the South Suburban Branch Library located at 3625 Summers Lane, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Club Promotion

The Federation wants to help all of its member clubs promote their activities and assist with recruiting new club members. In this regard, we are requesting that each club prepare and update a brochure, or other type of information sheet and provide copies to the Federation for distribution at PIPEX and SEAPEX.

The promotional items could also be copies of the club's current newsletter, or their local show publicity cards.

Contents should include details on where and when the club meets, annual dues amount, as well as contact information to enable interested persons to find out more about the organization.

New Cook Book

Captain Cook, that is. A new book is being published in the first part of 2020 that deals with the subject of the third voyage of Captain James Cook (1728–1779) through the lens of first day and event covers.

Cook's third and final voyage took place between 12 July 1776 and 4 October 1780. During this voyage, Cook was killed in the Hawaiian Islands on 14 February 1779.

The book illustrates about 1,000 covers in approximately 400 full-color pages that highlight the achievements of Cook during this voyage. It includes historical information and charts, artwork on cover from the voyage, and new artwork on cover by modern artists.

It will be published in a strictly limited print run based solely on registered interests received prior to 15 December 2019. To register your interest, without any commitment to purchase, contact the author, Daryl Kibble, by email: kibbled@bigpond.com.

Federation Award Nominations

According to the Northwest Federation By-Laws, nominations for Northwest Federation awards are due to the Executive Secretary (larry.crain@gmail.com) no later than 120 days before the next PIPEX show. That date is 10 January 2020.

The Federation sponsors three different awards, but there is no requirement that any of them be given out each year. However, certainly with almost 40 member organizations, there are deserving people out there, so each club should try to submit some nominations.

Northwest Distinguished Philatelist Award. The highest award. For outstanding and distinguished service to philately in general.

Federation Meritorious Achievement Award. For outstanding and distinguished service directly to the Northwest Federation

Member Service Award. For outstanding and distinguished local service to a member organization.

See the Federation website and Federation Bylaws for more details.

U.S. WWII Naval Cover

— by Jack R. Congrove, Puget Sound Collectors Club

This cover, posted on 26 November 1943, raises some little-known history of the U.S. Navy activities in the Pacific Northwest during World War II.

The imprinted parts of the penalty envelope have faded over time and are difficult to read in this image. The cover was sent from the U.S. Naval Hospital, Farragut, Idaho, by Lieutenant (j.g.) N. Littlefield, a member of the Hospital Corps, to Commander (Dr.) H. H. Kretzler at the Naval Air Station Pasco, Washington.

At first glance, one wonders what the U.S. Navy was doing in two such land-locked locations, the closest being more than 230 miles (370 km) from the ocean. Unfortunately, the contents of the cover have not accompanied it, so we might presume, since it was sent on official business, that it dealt with some sort of issue related to the U.S. Navy medical field.

Because of concern about “coastal bombings” at the outset of U.S. involvement in World War II, civil authorities sought naval training facilities well inland. A panel of officers selected a site at the south end of Lake Pend Oreille (I hate these French names. Why don’t they just write Pond Oray?) in the northern Idaho panhandle.

Construction began in April 1942, and the base was named Farragut Naval Training Station after Admiral David G. Farragut. By the end of 1942, the base had a population of 55,000, making it the largest “city” in the state and the second largest naval training center in the world after Naval Station Great Lakes.

The base hospital, initially intended to care for recruits undergoing training, was commissioned on 15 January 1943. Original construction provided for 44 wards of 46 beds (2,024 patients) and several service buildings. Fourteen more wards and civilian care facilities came on line in the autumn of 1944. The hospital grounds occupied the east end of the training center shown in the image, above.

Late in the war, as training activity cut back, the hospital absorbed 1,600 more beds to accommodate convalescents and neuropsychiatric patients transferred from other naval hospitals. During its operation, more than 17,000 Corpsmen were trained at the facility.

Both the Naval Training Station and the Hospital were decommissioned on 15 June 1946. Today, Farragut State Park occupies most of the Training Station property and only a handful of the original 667 buildings still stand.

Naval Air Station Pasco was a U.S. Navy air station located two miles northwest of Pasco, Washington. It was built in the early 1940s. During the first part of the war, the field was used to train beginning pilots for combat. During the last half of the war, the mission shifted to training es-established pilots returning from battle in the use of newer aircraft.

The field was one of the three busiest naval aviation training facilities of the war. About 1,800 pilots trained there with 300 aircraft on base at any one time.

After the war, the Navy sold the field to the city of Pasco and it now serves as the Tri-Cities Airport. The Navy still retains training privileges at the airstrip. Several Navy aircraft, especially the P-3 Orion, use the field for landing and take-off training.

In August 2018, the Navy-built control tower was turned into a museum.

Concerning the sender, I was unable to find any information about Lieutenant Littlefield from the records I could access.

The recipient, Commander Kretzler, was a different matter. Dr. Harry Hamlin Kretzler, Sr. (1896–1982), was born in Hoboken, New Jersey, on 17 September 1896. A veteran of both World War I and World War II, he retired with the rank of Captain in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Dr. Kretzler practiced medicine in Edmonds, Washington, for nearly 60 years. He earned his medical degree at the University of Nebraska in 1923. He was active in a wide variety of community organizations, especially the American Legion, in which he served as commander of the local Post 66 as well as district and department commander. In 1960–61, he was the National Vice-Commander. He passed away at Northwest Hospital on 31 December 1982.

Bridge River-Lillooet News

The story of this newspaper is the story of Margaret “MA” Murray, who was born on 3 August 1888, in Windy Ridge, Kansas, the seventh of nine children of an Irish immigrant family. In 1912, she arrived in Vancouver and took a job as a bookkeeper with George Murray’s Vancouver Chinook newspaper. She and George were married on 5 March 1913.

Soon thereafter their two children were born and the depressed war economy required George and Margaret to work at numerous jobs to keep body and soul together. They started several new publications and George wrote articles for the Province to make ends meet.

In 1933, George Murray went to the Peace River district and got into local politics, winning the Lillooet riding for the provincial Liberals. This success was repeated in 1937. In the meantime, on 1 March 1934, George and Margaret launched the first issue of their Bridge River-Lillooet News.

Alaska Highway News

Shortly after George Murray lost his third bid to represent Lillooet in the provincial legislature in 1941, he went to Fort St. John and started the Alaska Highway News. His wife Margaret joined him and left their son Dan to run the Bridge River-Lillooet News.

In 1949, George Murray ran for a federal seat in the Cariboo riding and won for the Liberals. This required more hands-on time for Margaret to spend with the paper.

George died in 1961 and Margaret remained active in publishing. Over the years, she garnered many accolades, including the "Order of Canada" in 1971, as well as an honorary Doctorate of Laws from Simon Fraser University. She passed away in 1982.

Successful First Show

— by Steve Bucknum, Central Oregon Postal Collective

The Central Oregon Postal Collective held its first stamp show on 28 September 2019, in the fellowship hall of the Zion Lutheran Church in Redmond, Oregon. A total of five dealers came to this bourse: Harmer-Schau, Uptown Stamp Show, R.G. Stamps and Covers, Ed Dimmick Stamps, and Grant's Stamps.

Seven members of the club set up the space the night before. Care was taken to note the location of every table and chair, so that they could be returned to the exact spot to please the church ladies following the show on Sunday morning. Then the next morning, the doors were opened for loading at 8:00 AM. By 10:00 AM, the dealers were set up, and the doors were opened to the public.

This was the first stamp show in Central Oregon in approximately 40 years. This area is about 150 miles from the towns in the Willamette Valley where stamp shows are more commonly held. These factors combined to make this more of a buying event for the dealers than a selling event. All advertising for the show had stressed that people who had inherited collections were welcome to bring them in to the dealers. About 20 collections were in fact purchased during the six hours that the show was open. The total attendance was at 60 people.

The club provided lunch and beverages to the dealers and its members during the show. During the day of the show, between monitoring the show and having both a club table and kids table, and during the take down, 16 club members participated in the show. At the end, all the tables and chairs were returned to their exact original positions.

The club debriefed the show at its meeting the following weekend. Generally, feedback was good from dealers. Those selling covers and individual stamps found that part of their business was a little slow. However, overall the show was seen as profitable.

The members gave positive feedback. While not a lot of children used the kids table, it did bring in some families that otherwise would not have attended. At least two new club members were found through the show, and one visitor will be providing a future program at a club meeting.

We think we will be doing this again.

Federation Bylaws Proposed Revision

[Ed note: At the Federation Annual General Meeting (AGM) last year, the Federation adopted a revised set of Bylaws. This was done because the previous version was severely outdated, and, in fact, no one was exactly sure which among several undated versions was the one legally in effect.

At that AGM, it was noted that more changes were needed and a committee was appointed to continue reviewing the document and submit a proposed updated revision for consideration at the AGM in 2020. The committee has completed its work and the Federation Board of Directors has reviewed and approved the result. Herewith, we are publishing the proposed draft revision in accordance with the requirements in the current Bylaws.

The Federation Board asks that member clubs review the revised document and be prepared to discuss and vote on it at the next AGM. Copies of both the current Bylaws and this proposed revision are available for download at the Federation website (www.nwfedstamps.org).

The two most significant changes are the elimination of term limits for the Federation Treasurer and removal of the details for the Federation awards. The award information will be published in a separate policy letter that will enable making adjustments and additions without having to go through the complications of amending the Bylaws.

Please submit any questions or comments to the Executive Secretary (larry.crain@gmail.com).

Holiday Quiz

As I write this in early November, we are entering the period of the calendar marked by several holidays, both greater and lesser, that actually extends all the way through the time until the release of our next issue. There are more than one dozen of these events and nine of them are celebrated in both countries. See if you can match the statement to the related stamp.

- ___ 1. This holiday in Canada is celebrated on the same day as Veterans Day in the US.
- ___ 2. This varmint has its own day in both countries.
- ___ 3. Both countries have issued stamps celebrating this Festival of Lights.
- ___ 4. This holiday is based on the lunar calendar.
- ___ 5. Celebrated in five provinces on the same day as #6 in the US.

- ___ 6. This holiday goes by at least five different names among all of the States.
- ___ 7. Although unofficial, this feast day is celebrated in both countries in March.
- ___ 8. Flowers and candy are commonly exchanged on this holiday.
- ___ 9. This holiday is arguably the largest and most widely celebrated in both countries.
- ___ 10. Canada celebrates this holiday in the month before the same holiday takes place in the US.

(Bonus) This is probably the most celebrated public holiday throughout the entire world.
